GENERAL INFORMATION – ATV RIDERCOURSE

Protective Equipment: A CSA approved helmet, eye protection (shatter resistant goggles or face shield), leather gloves, long sleeve shirt or jacket, over-the-ankle shoes or boots (no high heels or sneakers) and long sturdy pants are required.

Lunches: The lunch break is only 30 minutes; bring a snack and plenty to drink.

Be Prepared: Learning to ride an ATV safely demands alertness. Get a good night's sleep before the day of the course and eat a good breakfast. ATV riding is a physical activity. If you are taking any medication or are under a doctor's care, consult your doctor before enrolling. Do not use drugs or alcohol 24 hours before or at any time during the course.

Be Punctual: Arrive at the course site at least 15 minutes early so you will have enough time to unload your ATV, have it inspected and prepare yourself for the class.

The class is scheduled for _____ and will meet from 8:00AM to approximately 3.00PM.

RELEASE, WAIVER AND INDEMNIFICATION

The undersigned participant and his/her parent or legal guardian, if the participant is under the age of 18 years, does (do) hereby execute this release, waiver and indemnification for himself (herself, themselves) and his (her/their) heirs, successors, representatives and assigns, and hereby agree(s) and represent(s) as follows:

To release the CSC, it's members, employees, certified instructors, Chief instructors, representatives and those government agencies and other organizations affiliated with this ATV RiderCourse from any and all liability, loss, damage, costs, claims, and/or causes of action, including but not limited to all bodily injuries and property damage arising out of participation in the course referred to above, it being specifically understood that said course includes the operation and use by the undersigned participant and others of ATVs. The undersigned further agree(s) to indemnify the Canada Safety Council, its employees, members, certified instructors, Chief instructors, representatives and those government agencies and other organizations affiliated with this project, and hold them harmless for any liability, loss, damage, cost, claim, judgement or settlement which may be brought or entered against them as the result pf the undersigned's participation in said course. This indemnification shall include attorney's fees incurred in defending against any claim or judgement and incurred in negotiating any settlement, provided however, that such consent shall not be unreasonably withheld.

The information contained in this course is offered for the benefit of those who have an interest in and/or ride All-Terrain Vehicles (ATVs). The information has been compiled from publications, interviews and observations of individuals and organizations familiar with the use of ATVs. Because there are many differences in product design, riding terrain and riding styles, there may be organizations and individuals who hold differing opinions. Although the Canada Safety Council will continue to research, field test and publish responsible viewpoints on this subject, it must disclaim specific or general liability for those views expressed in the course and related materials.
